 OF NEW ENGLAND

Consisting of . . . . { THE UNIMPORTANT
 THE UNKNOWN
 THE MISLED

REWARD—A liberal reward, one in proportion to the value of the service, will be paid for a list of the names of the members of the alleged Suburban Press Association of New England who were present at the alleged meeting said to have been held in Boston, when it is alleged that the members present passed a resolution to the effect that the methods of the American Newspaper Directory are beneath contempt. Application has been made to all the one hundred and thirty-eight alleged members of this alleged association, but thus far it has not been possible to unearth any member who is willing to admit that he was present—with the single exception of one Whitaker, the alleged editor and publisher of the New England Farmer, who is suspected of having been not only the instigator of the resolution, but also to have been the only member present at the alleged meeting, and of having written, offered, passed and reported the famous resolution all alone. Any one having knowledge to the contrary will confer a favor and earn a reward by communicating with the editor of the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY at No. 10 Spruce Street, New York.

The above reward has been conspicuously advertised but no man has been found bold enough to rise up and admit that he was there. The reward will be continued till Whitaker confesses or proves that he was countenanced by at least one other member of the fake-newspaper association called Suburban.

The Messenger

Is the only Matrimonial Paper that is worthy of the name. It is clean, progressive and "up to date." It circulates among a class of people that are the most liberal buyers in the country. If you wish to reach a class of mail-order buyers that buy, give it a trial order and be convinced.

It is now in its seventh year and growing steadily. Present circulation rating, guaranteed by the publishers of this Directory, is over 1,858.

Our Rates are lower in proportion than any other paper of its class. Write for sample copy and rate card.

A GOOD ADVERTISING FIELD and A GOOD MEDIUM WHEREBY TO REACH IT.

The county of Monroe is one of the most prosperous in the prosperous and wealthy State of Michigan. Its lands are rich, its farmers are well-to-do, its laborers are steadily employed. No better rural county can be found in the whole Union than this.

If you want to tell the people of this county the merits of your wares you can find no other medium equal to the MONROE COMMERCIAL, published weekly at the county seat and which circulates in every township in the county.

The COMMERCIAL is 57 years old; it is the best printed, best gotten up, most widely circulated paper in the county, and publishes each week more original township news than all the other papers in the county combined.

An old-established paper like this has a clientele all its own. Our field is an exclusive one, and you cannot get before our readers in any other way so steadily, so completely or so cheaply as through our paper.

Such well-known advertisers as J. C. Ayer & Co., Bucklen & Co., Centaur Co., Royal Baking Powder Co., Price Baking Powder Co., N. W. Ayer & Son, Lord & Thomas, and Cheney Med. Co. have used our paper for years.

It will pay you to do the same.

NEWSPAPER DIRECTORIES IN NEWSPAPER CONVENTIONS.

Office of
 "THE EVENING ARGUS,"
 G. T. Campbell, Managing Editor.
 Owosso, Mich., Oct. 28, 1897. }

Geo. P. Rowell Adv. Agency:

The Inland Daily Press Association, at its next meeting, Nov. 9th, will discuss the subject of newspaper directories; are they beneficial to newspaper publications? If you can furnish me with any argument, data, etc., on this subject, I shall be obliged.

G. T. CAMPBELL.

NEW YORK, October 30, 1897.

*Mr. G. T. Campbell, Managing Editor
 "Evening Argus":*

DEAR SIR—Your letter of October 28th is at hand. We believe that in any convention of newspaper publishers, where the subject of newspaper directories is discussed, they will arrive at the conclusion that newspaper directories are all bad, and that the newspaper directory that is most carefully edited is the worst. We do not see how they can arrive at any other conclusion, because poor papers are in the majority at every convention at the proportion of from nine, nineteen or twenty-nine to one, and the directories are bad for the poor paper, although valuable for advertisers and very valuable for the good papers. We are

Your obedient servants,

THE GEO. P. ROWELL ADVERTISING CO.,

Advertisement.—The circulation of the JOURNAL was over 40,000 average per day for the past half of 1897, and was less than 40,000 average per day during the first half of 1897. In January, 1898, the average issue was a good deal more than 40,000. The directory rating C may be technically correct, but the JOURNAL's issues are over 40,000 copies a day at this time, February 1, 1898.

The Minneapolis JOURNAL has gained and maintained its distinctive position of being the paper of largest circulation and highest advertising value in the Northwest without resorting to any premium or coupon scheme.

It holds a daily circulation of 40,000, without having had to reduce its selling price, as has each of its daily competitors. It is now, as it always has been, a two-cent paper. All others in its field are one-cent papers.

It is the popular "home" paper of the Northwest; no other paper published in the Northwest has as large a circulation as the Minneapolis JOURNAL; no other daily carries as much advertising.

It is the best advertising medium in the Northwest, because, although its rates per line are higher, it is the paper that shows the greatest percentage of profit to the advertiser for the amount of money invested.

An amusing story is told of a fastidious waiter who would not eat in the restaurant where he worked. The food that was good enough for the customers was not good enough for him.

There are newspaper publishers in the country who are like this waiter. They are constantly and properly singing the praises of newspaper advertising. There is nothing like it, they say, for reaching the great body of buyers of all sorts of articles, and they are entirely right.

But they are slow to take their own medicine. The very newspaper that devotes ponderous leading editorials to the advantages of newspaper advertising, will advertise itself by means of circulars. And the same paper will declare over and over that circular advertising is, of all forms of publicity, the most unsatisfactory and relatively the most expensive. These weighty considerations do not prevent the newspapers from sending circulars to general advertisers

A prominent newspaper in St. Paul, Minn., finds itself in the unfortunate fix set forth in a letter dated December 13, 1897, which is partially reproduced above. How many papers once prominent are in the same boat with this unfortunate publisher? What better way is there to induce the public to forget a newspaper, or any other business, than for the management thereof to allow themselves to occupy the position in which Mr. Jackson is at present stalled? "No appropriation for advertising." Is it not sad? Some of the Minneapolis papers do do a little advertising, but on the whole the papers of the Twin Cities are nearly unanimous in the opinion that the man who advertises is a donkey. Owing to a wicked rule passed by the Publishers' Association of that city, the St. Louis papers are at present also prohibited from making any advertising contracts, so they, like their Minnesota brethren, are practically "with no appropriation for advertising."

A certain department store recently took an entire page in a number of afternoon papers. This advertisement contained only one item, which was boys' suits to sell at a price of less than $5. I understand that the advertisement cost the house over $1,000, and I believe it took a good deal of grit on the part of this store to put that much money into an advertisement of only one single item, and that one upon which they had no opportunity to make more than a few cents on each sale. The greater part of the advertisement consisted of a picture of the boys' suit. The description was in large type and the advertisement was really sensational from its size. I believe that this fact had a great deal to do with the success of the advertisement, and I do not believe that half a page or a quarter of a page would have produced half or quarter of the results that were produced by the page. The boldness of the idea is in itself attractive and commands attention. My correspondent informed me that the advertisement brought a wonderful response, and that if the firm had had on hand double the number of suits that they did have, they could have easily sold them. Before the day was nearly over the entire stock was exhausted, and the profit on the sale itself more than paid for the advertising, without considering the fact that the boys' clothing department of this firm had been indelibly stamped upon the minds of the public generally through the mere size of the one advertisement.—Chas. F. Jones, in Printers' Ink.

THE FARMERS' ADVOCATE

Is thoroughly established in its field and the leading paper in every respect in Caldwell County. It is run by experienced, hustling newspaper men. The present circulation is more than double any paper in Caldwell County.

Present circulation rating guaranteed by this Directory, and sworn circulation furnished every month. We cordially invite inspection of our circulation by any advertiser, his agent or attorney.

Our sworn circulation November 1, 1897, was 1,824; December 1, 1897, was 1,992; January 1, 1898, was 2,040. All our gain in subscribers are those who subscribed and paid a year in advance. We have the largest paid in advance list of subscribers of any paper in Northern Missouri. New subscribers, at the rate of 75 or more each month, are being added to our subscription list.

If you ask any one in our field who takes THE FARMERS' ADVOCATE, they will invariably answer, "EVERYBODY."

Our rates are lower, in proportion to circulation, than any paper in Northwest Missouri. Advertisements in our columns bring excellent results. Our advertisers are our firmest, warmest friends. Enthusiastic testimonials unsolicited from our advertisers are received every week. Our advertisers remain with us as long as they advertise in our section.

Our paper gathers all the news in its field so thoroughly every week that hundreds of people in Caldwell County take no other county paper but

THE FARMERS' ADVOCATE, Hamilton, Mo.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.

January 15th, 1898.

Dear Sirs,-

Permit me to add the Star's testimony to that of other papers as to your fairness in quoting newspaper ratings. It has been my pleasure to send you a statement of the Star's circulation every year for the past fifteen years and in not a single instance have you misquoted this paper's circulation. It may be well to add that the Star takes its own medicine as to advertising, and while it has sometimes purchased space in your directory, the circulation statements have been quoted correctly in the American Newspaper Directory whether an advertisement was given you or not.

Yours truly,

Clay F. Seested
Business Manager.

Advertisement.—The Kansas City STAR's circulation is more than double the combined circulation of all the other Kansas City daily newspapers. Circulation guaranteed. Daily, over 74,000. Sunday, over 74,000. Weekly, over 120,000.

The STAR accepts all advertising on condition that the paid circulation of its daily and Sunday editions exceeds 74,000 each issue, and that the paid-in advance circulation of its weekly edition exceeds 120,000 each issue, or no charge whatever is made. The circulation of its daily and Sunday editions is more than double the combined circulation of all the other Kansas City dailies, and its advertising rate is less per 1,000 of circulation than that of any other paper in Missouri. Kansas City advertisers pay the STAR annually more money than they pay to all other local mediums.

Advertisement. The West is without a doubt the best advertising field in America. The year just closed has seen abundant crops and good prices, which make the West more prosperous than at any time in her history. The very people who have the most money are those who are reached by THE KANSAS CITY PACKER. Not only have these people money, but they keep it in circulation—it is a way Westerners have. The PACKER circulates among farmers, stock men, small storekeepers and provision men. Every copy of THE PACKER is paid for and read by heads of families because it is the standard market paper of the West. There is equality in circulation just as there is in butter. Our circulation is gilt edged and covers ten States thoroughly. Our circulation is guaranteed by the publishers of this Directory.

Platte County Argus

15TH YEAR.

Has made more progress every way than any other newspaper in its agricultural field, full of prosperous farmers, in the years 1893, 4, 5, 6 and 7, and expects to do so in 1898, 9 and 1900, and on, and on; for it will push, and push, and push. Has not circulated less than 1,500 copies any week since October 1, 1897, and does not expect to in any future week. Per Year, $1.50. Its rates are higher—for the best reasons—than any other paper's in its field. Official county seat paper.

An amusing story is told of a fastidious waiter who would not eat in the restaurant where he worked. The food that was good enough for the customers was not good enough for him.

There are newspaper publishers in the country who are like this waiter. They are constantly and properly singing the praises of newspaper advertising. There is nothing like it, they say, for reaching the great body of buyers of all sorts of articles, and they are entirely right.

But they are slow to take their own medicine. The very newspaper that devotes ponderous leading editorials to the advantages of newspaper advertising, will advertise itself by means of circulars. And the same paper will declare over and over that circular advertising is, of all forms of publicity, the most unsatisfactory and relatively the most expensive. These weighty considerations do not prevent the newspapers from sending circulars to general advertisers

THE ORD QUIZ

IS IN ITS SIXTEENTH YEAR, BUT IT HAS NOT GOT ITS GROWTH.

It is published in the famous Loup Country, in a section tributary to no important town but Ord. It is one of the oldest papers in the State and grows better every year. In the field covered by it it has no rival in age, influence, circulation or sterling qualities. Its founder is its present owner and active manager. It demands a high subscription price and gets it. It occupies its own fine brick block and owes no man a dollar. It is printed all at home.

Actual average circulation for the six months past, 1,023. If you want to capture this country THE QUIZ is your weapon.

THE SOUTH OMAHA DAILY DROVERS' JOURNAL

(With Weekly, Semi-Weekly and Tri-Weekly Editions)

Published at the Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb.,

Should find its way into the hands of every stockman, farmer, feeder, shipper, fancy stock breeder, ranchman, grain dealer and shipper in the West. It is well and carefully edited by men who make it their business to study the market and write it up in an intelligent and absolutely reliable manner. No other paper in the West gives as good and complete market reports nor as many sales as the DROVERS' JOURNAL, and no other market paper publishes matter of a miscellaneous character that is so well suited to the needs of those in whose interest it is published; and the DROVERS' JOURNAL is the only paper in South Omaha that furnishes all the important telegraphic news "while it is news," six days in the week. The DROVERS' JOURNAL has a larger circulation than any other live stock newspaper and market reporter in the West, and it is the very best advertising medium where it is desired to reach farmers, stock-raisers, breeders and dealers. The subscription price of the DAILY DROVERS' JOURNAL is $4.00; Tri-Weekly, $2.50; Semi-Weekly, $2.00, and the Weekly, $1.50 per year, and you can get free copy by addressing

THAT IS THE KIND YOU WANT;
THAT IS THE KIND WE DO;
THAT IS THE KIND THAT PAYS.

While we do not claim to excel in all kinds of first-class printing (though we flatter ourselves that we can hold our own),

WE DO CLAIM that we have unsurpassed facilities for getting up attractive advertisements.

LEBANON, N. H., Jan. 10, 1898.

Messrs. GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,

Publishers American Newspaper Directory,
10 Spruce Street, New York.

Gentlemen—The actual number of complete copies of the GRANITE STATE FREE PRESS, of Lebanon, N.H., printed and circulated for the year 1897 (spoiled and returned copies not counted) was 71,477. The circulation of each of the 53 issues of the year is shown by inclosure I make with this letter, giving the average for each week, by actual count, to be 1,348<sup>33</sup>/<sub>53</sub>.

This statement is made in good faith, for your information and use in your Directory.

It makes an honest publisher disgusted to hear the complaints from some quarters that accurate ratings can not be obtained in your Directory. I have never bought a cent's worth of your advertising space, yet you have always faithfully told my honest and truthful story of my circulation. It's the easiest thing imaginable to comply with your rules, and there is no excuse for any honest man failing to get proper rating save as he may decline to give substantial facts.

Respectfully,

Harry M. Cheney, Business Manager

New Jersey Freie Zeitung

BENEDICT PRIETH Manager
FREDERICK KUHN, Editor

DER ERZÄHLER

GERMAN
DAILY, SUNDAY & WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

75 MARKET STREET

Newark, N. J. Jan. 8. 1898.

American Newspaper Directory,

New York.

Gentlemen:

There used to be a small German Daily in this town, whose management raised an awful howl, when you placed it in the "J.K.L." class. ~~###~~ The paper in question is the N.J. Deutsche Zeitung", which recently suspended publication, owing to the dwindling of it's circulation. The management of the paper used to claim about 5000 subscribers, and told it's patrons that the N.J. Freie Zeitung, received a higher rating, because it advertised in the Directory. After the paper collapsed it was shown that the paid circulation amounted to only 700 daily, and 800 on Sunday. The N.J. Deutsche Zeitung", whose office was situated at # 96 Market St., City, was established about 17 years ago. The N.J. Freie Zeitung, is ~~###~~ now the only German paper in this city, and the only German daily in New Jersey.

Very truly yours,

N. J. Freie Zeitung,

The newspapers that kick about their circulation ratings in the American Newspaper Directory are usually either dying or dishonest--frequently both. No honest publisher ever had any difficulty about being correctly rated in the Directory. It is the practice, however, of some newspaper men, who were born blackmailers, to designate the Directory as a blackmailing institution. Even these never do it in good faith and always flush up when this fact is mentioned to them.

Advertisement.—As a local paper the NEWS takes the place that formerly was occupied by the weekly papers. As a general newspaper the NEWS has the news of the world simultaneously with the newspapers of the cities. In the matter of circulation the NEWS is the wonder of newspaper men and advertisers everywhere. A comparison of its circulation with the population of Batavia shows that no paper in the United States has so many subscribers according to the number of inhabitants. Its subscriptions are all paid in advance. No paper is sent out unless it is paid for, and the paper is stopped promptly when the time expires. Advertisers find it almost effective medium.

Advertisement.—The Brooklyn DAILY EAGLE was established in 1841 and is the oldest newspaper in Brooklyn. It is a recognized and valued institution of the borough. It represents the life and character of Brooklyn, and is the exponent of all the city's best interests. It is a three-cent paper, and circulates not only throughout the entire boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens, but in every town and village on Long Island, and has a large circulation in the borough of Manhattan. Brooklyn has a population of over 1,250,000 people. It has four afternoon English newspapers and no morning dailies, save two, which are published on Sundays only. The paper that gets into the homes of Brooklynites and is read by all members of the families is the Brooklyn DAILY EAGLE. Its value to advertisers who wish to reach the people of this community is apparent to any one who understands the newspaper situation. The home of the EAGLE is one of the finest equipped and handsomest newspaper offices in the country. The building is eight stories high, exclusive of the basement, and rises 129 feet from the ground on Washington street, with a frontage of 68 feet, and 198 feet on Johnson street. The extension of the basement under the sidewalk affords room on this floor for four Hoe Quadruple Perfection presses, with boilers, engines and hydraulic pumps. Within, the building is in style of finish of offices, halls, corridors, stairways and appurtenances surpassed by no modern building in the world. With the exception of a few rooms the EAGLE occupies the entire building, two floors being used for as fine and as perfect a job printing establishment as there is in the country, the other floors having the handsomely fitted up editorial rooms, a first-class art and engraving department, the information bureau, the composing rooms, with the very latest equipments, index and almanac rooms. Besides this very large home office the EAGLE has found it necessary to establish commodious branch offices throughout the city, and bureaus in New York, Washington and Paris for the accommodation of Brooklyn tourists and foreign and local advertisers. With the march of time the Brooklyn EAGLE has kept step. An institution that has steadily grown in popular favor and proved of inestimable value to advertisers is the EAGLE Free Information Bureau, occupying two large, light and elegantly fitted up rooms on the fourth floor of the office building. Here people may come and receive the most comprehensive information in regard to winter sanitariums, summer and other resorts all over the world, educational institutions, railroad service, and, in fact, any information that might be desired and could be given of this description. Thousands of people have taken and are taking advantage of this entirely gratuitous service. The result has been an amount of advertising of this character that has not been equaled by any other journal. The EAGLE is constantly adding to its force of workers and to the utility of its departments. It is a strictly first-class modern newspaper. Its enterprises are many, but all in a direct line with legitimate newspaper work. Its editorial page and the character of its news is refined and thoroughly high-toned. It enters into the best of families, and its influence is unquestioned. As an advertising medium it is certainly not excelled by any paper in the country. It is a home paper in a city of homes. The extraordinary amount of direct correspondence it receives from its constituency is a proof of its immediate and effective relations with its readers. Nothing is omitted that would benefit its readers. Everything is done to aid its advertisers. In fact, the Brooklyn EAGLE is a first-class and thoroughly up-to-date newspaper.

Advertisement.—They have the money and they are willing to spend it for what suits them. They will pay a fair price for what they want, even when something else is offered to them at half price. Their trade, once got, sticks. Of course they are the people whom an advertiser wants to reach. And he can reach them by advertising in the Buffalo Express. It is the only paper in Western New York which is sold on its merits, and not on its price. During the campaign year of 1896 its circulation was daily 16,466, Sunday 69,540. In 1897 all the other Buffalo papers were sold for one cent outside of town, and all but the Commercial for one cent in town, and one of the Sunday papers went to one cent and another to three cents. All of the Rochester papers reduced to one cent. The Express remained at two cents everywhere on the daily, and at five cents on the Sunday. The circulation for the entire year on the daily was 15,141, and on the Sunday 65,451. Can an advertiser doubt that the kind of people who read the Express are the kind of people whom he wants to have read his advertisement?

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, c. h., New York Co. □ 1,515,301† pop.—local census of 1895, 1,849,866—situated partly on Manhattan Island, which lies at the confluence of the Hudson and East rs. The city limits extend into neighboring counties. It is the commercial metropolis of the United States, and the most populous and important city in the western hemisphere. Noted for the cosmopolitan character of its population and the variety and importance of its commercial and financial interests, manufacturing and other industries. One of the finest and most commodious harbors in the world.

CITY RECORD; every morning except Sunday and other legal holidays than election day; four to one hundred and thirty pages 12x17; subscription $9.90; established 1873; inserts minutes of municipal bodies and official advertisements only; circ'n "JCL." Office, 2 City Hall.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER; every evening except Sunday; republican; eight to twelve pages 17x24; subscription $6; established 1797; H. J. Wright, editor; J. S. Seymour, publisher; circulation rating has varied from 22,000 in 1891 to E in 1895. In 1896, E. Office, 29 Park row.

Advertisement.—Changes already made under the new management indicate that the COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER is seeking popularity with the intelligent people of the Greater New York. It is offering them one of the best newspapers published in America, clean and fair, well edited and excellently printed. It is easy to read, and the matter presented is worth reading. That the paper is in good hands and on the way to a distinct success will easily be inferred by any newspaper man who knows the good work and ability of the men in control of the paper.—Fourth Estate, New York, Nov. 25, 1897.

The COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER under the new regime is more than regaining its old-time prestige. It always has had a particularly nice class of readers. With the new management I look to see this paper take rank at the very fore front.—A. Simonson in Printers' Ink, Dec. 22, 1897.

We have not always agreed with our contemporary in its political course; but we can conscientiously pay it the tribute of being the best edited of all the evening journals. Its editorial paraphrasing shows a wide scope, while its entire management commends this admirable journal to public regard and appreciation.—Christian Work, New York, Jan. 13, 1897.

The net cost charges for advertising in December, 1897, were 46 per cent more than in December, 1896, and in January, 1898, the net cost charges for advertising were 42 per cent more than in January, 1897. This advertising comes from the shrewdest and most successful advertisers in the United States.

COMMERCIAL AMERICA AND SHIPPING LIST AND NEW YORK PRICE CURRENT; daily except Sunday and holidays; commercial; sixteen pages 15x22; subscription $10; established 1795; D. O. New York.

Gentlemen:—

We are sufficiently well satisfied with our page in "Printers' Ink" to be willing to secure it for another year, if we may have it on the same terms as our present contract, viz: Ten Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($10,400.00) net cash.

Very truly yours,

THE RECORD PUBLISHING COMPANY.

William M. Singerly.
President.

The advertiser who has nothing in particular to advertise, and who inserts a three-line ad in PRINTERS' INK, to appear once a month or thereabouts, sometimes pays the price with a feeling that advertising produces no adequate result, and that his money was wasted: but the advertiser who buys a page in PRINTERS' INK, in a choice position, and tells a new and interesting story every week, for a whole year, may generally be counted on to renew his order. He has learned by experience that advertising is

THE NEW YORK

Maritime Register

(ESTABLISHED 1869)

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY

AT

5 & 7 South William St., N. Y.,

keeps a record of the movements of all ocean vessels. It also contains a list of vessels in the Port of New York and vicinity.

The MARITIME REGISTER also publishes all information relating in any way to maritime affairs. It devotes much space to discussion of shipping and commercial matters and gives special attention to all questions relating to the export trade of the United States.

The publishers will upon request at any time furnish their subscribers with catalogues and price lists of American and foreign manufactures and products and answer inquiries regarding the same.

The N. Y. MARITIME REGISTER, in addition to its circulation in many inland towns, has subscribers in nearly every port of the world.

The New York Medical Journal

THE LEADING
MEDICAL JOURNAL OF AMERICA.

Edited by FRANK P. FOSTER, M. D.

Published by D. APPLETON & CO.

The JOURNAL is carefully edited, its articles are all of the highest order, and are written by the leading men of the profession, its object being to aid in everything that will be valuable and helpful to the physician in his practice. Its advertising pages are solely in the interest of whatever may be beneficial or useful to the Medical Profession in their practice, Medical Institutions, Medical Preparations and Medical and Surgical Appliances, and excludes all advertisements not strictly professional. The circulation is large, and the following from PRINTERS' INK shows its position:

N. Y. MEDICAL JOURNAL is the one publication that receives a higher circulation rating than any other medical weekly published.—Printers' Ink.

See ROWELL'S NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY for 1897 and compare with other medical publications. Any further information desired will be gladly furnished.

APPLETONS' POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY,

PUBLISHED BY D. APPLETON & CO.

EDITED BY DR. W. J. YOUMANS.

The MONTHLY is the acknowledged organ of progressive ideas in this country. Received with favor at the outset, it has gone on increasing in influence, until its power is felt and acknowledged in the highest departments of intellectual activity.

The character of the circulation must of necessity be the very best—worth more TO ADVERTISERS than a circulation of four times the number in a magazine of a miscellaneous character. Correspondence solicited, and all desired information furnished.

Appears Quarterly.

THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY is revised and issued quarterly on the first of March, June, September and December. Forms will close February 1, May 1, August 1 and November 1, and always one month in advance of the date of issue. Corrections will be made daily as authenticated information is received or obtained.

The price of the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY will be $5, as heretofore. For $25, if paid in advance, subscribers may receive all the four issues of the Directory a year and Printers' Ink (issued weekly) for one year, thus having always the latest information, and in consideration of the payment ($25) strictly in advance, the subscriber may have the privilege of applying to the office for confidential reports whenever wanted. See publishers' announcement on opposite page.

Advertisement.—PRINTERS' INK, Geo. P. Rowell & Co., publishers, was the first of the now numerous class of journals devoted to advertising. It likes to call itself The Little Schoolmaster in the Art of Advertising. Since its establishment in 1888 it has had nearly two hundred imitators. These are generally spoken of as PRINTERS' INK's babies. PRINTERS' INK addresses advertisers, not newspaper men; and yet no class of people are more interested in its teachings than publishers. An editorial in the Brooklyn Eagle of March 24 says: "Probably no man in the United States is better informed about newspapers than Mr. Rowell. Newspaper work has been his life study." PRINTERS' INK is undoubtedly the national authority on newspapers as advertising mediums and on advertising methods. Its way of teaching is by exciting thought and discussion, expressing occasionally an opinion in favor of one plan and opposing another, but making no effort to be consistent, advocating to day to day's opinions and abandoning yesterday's theories to the dead past.

For PRINTERS' INK, I can say that I can trace to its influence, either directly or indirectly, at least eighty per cent of the letters of inquiry that I receive. And I believe from what I know and from what other advertisement writers have said, that my business has grown much more rapidly than any similar business ever grew.

Advertisement.—FASHIONS is a magazine list of itself. It consists of 150 separate papers, each with a distinct office of publication in a large city, with the influence and backing of the leading dry goods merchant of the place as its publisher. The editions range up to 25,000 copies per month for each city on its list. The aggregate circulation is necessarily enormous. The circulation is confined to trade centers where the goods advertised can be readily procured. As each copy of FASHIONS costs the merchant money, he is careful to see that it reaches his best customers and influences the sale of goods. Its circulation is not duplicated by any other magazine. The journal has a field of its own of which it is as peculiarly the head as are the Ladies' Home Journal and Youth's Companion of their respective classes.

Advertisement.—The STREET RAILWAY JOURNAL is the leading publication of the world devoted to electric and cable railways. Established in 1884, it is the pioneer paper of this great industry, and is the recognized authority on all matters relating to electric traction. Two editions are issued monthly—one for the U. S. and Canada, the other "International," for circulating in all foreign countries. The JOURNAL is a high-class monthly publication, the largest in the world. Its reading pages are carefully edited, and its advertising columns are a cyclopædia for the purchasers in this broad and progressive field. In circulation, it not only thoroughly covers the field in the United States, but foreign countries as well.

STUDENT; monthly; music, art and drama; forty-eight pages 9x11; subscription $1; established 1896, MacLean Publishing Co., editors and publishers. Circulation in 1897, I. Office, 1123 Broadway.

Advertisement.—The STUDENT is the only publication in America devoted to the interests of music students, art students and dramatic students, of whom it is reasonably estimated there are altogether not less than 150,000 active each year.

WRITING DESIGNING and PRINTING

n this business. No one else can offer you the same amount of time spent right in the very heart of the best section in the advertising world. I can be of benefit to you.

In addition to my regular printing line I carry on a writing and designing business.

I have for years supplied a select list of large firms with all the advertising writing they use in their business to their complete satisfaction.

Write me for any information you may want about advertisements, booklets, circulars, etc. I offer you the results of years of practical experience. Can you use my services?

THE ONLY DAILY PAPER published in Tioga County is....

THE OWEGO DAILY RECORD

It has a territory exclusively its own and thoroughly covers the county's 35,000 population, bringing to advertisers quicker and better returns than it is possible to obtain from this field through any other medium. The weekly edition,

THE TIOGA COUNTY RECORD

now in its 26th year, has no superior as a county paper, and reaches a majority of the prosperous farm homes of this and adjacent counties. A combination contract which includes both daily and weekly editions of THE RECORD will cover Owego and also Tioga and adjacent counties as no other advertising medium can. Rates reasonable and results sure to be satisfactory.

Publishers American Newspaper Directory,

New York.

Gentlemen:

In reference to the circulation quotations in your Newspaper Directory my experience may be of interest. I have had my ratings correctly taken care of by you since 1895 because I have complied with your instructions which were simple enough. Before that time your blanks were not properly filled out and my paper suffered by "estimated circulation." This I am satisfied need not occur if a publisher will wake up and attend to his own interests. <sup>I found the remedy, let the</sup> ~~fault-finders, who claim a circulation, wear to its consequences and~~ <sup>tell what it is</sup> I am confident that they will get their rating.

Very truly,

Fred M. Waterbury
Publisher.

Hard Wheat

Is the best in the world.

Where does it grow?

In the Red River Valley of the North.

It is worth something to-day, and the farmers who raised it made large profits during 1897. The marketable farm products of North Dakota for the past year were $55,000,000. This money has enabled the tillers of the soil to pay off many mortgages, and have money left for the comforts and luxuries of life.

The outlook for 1898 is even better than that for the past year.

Do you want to obtain some of this money?

The Fargo Forum and Republican

reaches 511 out of the 583 post offices in the State. The daily edition has an average circulation of 2,200, and the weekly has now reached 2,800, and is steadily climbing. The publishers have been in the newspaper business at Fargo for nineteen years.

If you have faith in what you advertise we have faith we can bring you good returns for the money invested in advertising in THE FORUM AND REPUBLICAN.

Estimates cheerfully and promptly furnished.

Dear Sir

I wish to add my testimony to that of many publishers, as to your absolute fairness and candor in the matter of circulation ratings. If a man does not want to lie about his circulation, he can find no fault with your methods.

Yours truly,

The Daily Advertiser

CHILlicothe, OHIO.

Although the daily edition of the ADVERTISER is but a little more than a year old, it already leads its competitors.

Local merchants pay higher rates than others because they know it pays.

It is the only Democratic and only one-cent daily in the city.

THE WEEKLY ADVERTISER was established 70 years ago and is one of the leading weeklies in the State.

THE CINCINNATI ANZEIGER.

ESTABLISHED 1877.

DAILY. - - SUNDAY. - - WEEKLY.

Is a most desirable paper to reach the large German population of Cincinnati and vicinity. THE ANZEIGER is a non-partisan journal. Its popularity as an advertising medium is attested by its large patronage from local advertisers. Advertising rates are low for the service. Write for estimates.
